Mr. John McLaughlin and Mr. Marshall Slingluff autotod to Camp Custer last Friday. Y. M. C. A. was observed. Addresses were given by John R. Mott, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., at the Post theater. An address was given at the Auditorium by Rev. Rice of Detroit, who recently returned from a five months' trip to England, Scotland and France. The soldier boys stated that the best thing they have on the grounds is the Y. M. C. A., where they spend most of their leisure hours. There are pianos and graphophones, which makes it seem more like home. All the writing material is free except some of the post cards; they can be bought for one cent each. They can buy stamps, mail their letters and send all parcel post packages at the "Y." Mr. McLaughlin and Slingluff state they were given a hearty welcome and the review of the work at Camp Custer was a wonderful sight in itself.

The following is the list of Elwell boys called into the service, who expect to leave for Battle Creek soon: Leo George Loomis, August Junda, Clare Mallory and Theodore Strack.

Our soldier boys write: "If any of the folks at home want to know what the boys like best, tell them that a letter from home folks is the best of all. When the postman comes every one is on his toes looking for his news from home," and that they didn't know how good the Elwell news seemed until you get away from home. Chris Downs writes the reporter: "I got your paper all right, and believe me, I digested every word of it. Send your home papers to the Elwell soldier boys. They will be fully appreciated."

Croup.
If your children are subject to croup get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and when the attack comes on be careful to follow the plain printed directions. You will be surprised at the quick relief which it affords.
